GREENVILLE
Annual Service and Election of Good Will Bible Class at Congregational Church—Reports Show Prosperous Condition—Local Mention.

The members of the Good Will Bible class, with their wives and friends, numbering about 60 in all, held their annual class supper and business meeting, followed by a social hour, in the parlors of the Greenville Congregational church Friday evening.
The evening began with the supper, served under the direction of Clifton H. Hobson, chairman of the entertainment committee, capably assisted by Charles E. Grover, Charles E. Meach, George Dollar, John L.
Moody, P. S. Brown and Paul Zahn.
The following menu was enjoyed:

Tomato Soup
Escalloped Oysters
Cold Roast Ham
Potato Salad
Coffin.
Ice Cream
Banana Salad
Cake
The business session which followed the supper, and the various reports showed that the class was in the best of health. There is a membership of over forty and a good balance in the treasury. The following officers were elected: President, Paul Zahn; vice president, William C.
Semple; secretary, Charles E. Grover; treasurer, Clifton H. Hobson; assistant teacher, Rev. C. H. Ricketts; chairman of the executive committee, C. H. Hobson; visiting committee, P. S. Brown; members, Charles E. Grover and Miss Ricketts, John Ringland.
In the matter of attendance, the report of the secretary was especially pleasing. The average attendance for the year was 16, the lowest month being August, when there were 11 perfect and the highest October, when there were 18 regular attendants for the five Sundays in the month. The average attendance for the present month of January thus far is 23, which is considered particularly good. Three members were present in attendance for the year, John Moody, Archibald Gilchrist and Rev. C. H. Ricketts.
The evening's closing was with an informal entertainment. Ernest E. Smith gave a talk on "The Price of Victory," referring to the trials that fall to all reformers, from the Spartans and Romans down to the down to the present time. The songs were sung by Messrs. Alexander, For-guson and Gay, and there were recitations by C. E. Grover and Miss Pauline Grover.
Because of the storm, the members of the St. Andrew's party, who were to be present in the mock trial at Preston City, did not make the trip out, the trial holding over one day.

Member of Executive Committee.
Clifton H. Hobson, principal of the Greenville grammar school, will go to Hartford today to attend meeting of the executive committee of the State Teachers' association. Among other matters the committee will begin work on a programme for the state convention in the fall.

Local Mention.
John McNeely, who has been ill at his home on Boswell avenue, is able to be out.

Miss Annie Palmer of Voluntown is visiting Miss Flossie Bowker of Central avenue.

Holger Anders of Sixth street, who has been employed at Hopkins & Allen's, has gone to Hartford to work in an automobile shop.

The Polish man, whose right leg was crushed at the Shetucket cotton mill, is recovering at his home on North Main street, near Tenth street.

Norwich Vaudeville Trio.
A Norwich trio with ambitions for the vaudeville stage were given a professional tryout at the Auditorium on Friday evening, being given a place on the bill, and they had a houseful of friends who were attracted to see their efforts. Howard, Mason and Cabral, in a coon singing and dance-ing act, showed how well pleased their friends were with the turn. Their strong hit was in the team dancing of Howard and Mason, winning a succession of enthusiastic applause.
Roses Bring Dreams of You, by Miss Cabral, showed a voice of pleasing quality and a beautiful attractive appearance in the time occupied by the trio.

PRESENTED GOLD HEADED CANE

James Henderson, Old Time Scotch Resident, Given a Surprise by His Friends on his Seventy-Fifth Birthday Anniversary.

The arrangements in the hands of Elmer D. Kinman, Archibald Mitchell, 4th, Reid McIntyre and Prof. James White were capably carried out, the party of sixteen men with their wives and lady friends meeting in the adjoining house and proceeding in a body to Mr. Henderson's. A feature of the programme carried out there was the presentation of a gold-headed cane, which was accompanied with a poem to "Uncle Jim." The poem was read by Elmer D. Kin-man. Alexander Shaw of Jewett City sent 15 beautiful carnations with his good wishes.

Professor White at the piano, and two violins, made an orchestra which played during the evening. Miss Gelineo of Lowell, Mass., a sister of Professor White, was heard in finely rendered Scotch songs.
All the necessary supplies for an elaborate banquet were brought by one party, and this was carried out in Scotch form, with John MacDougall as the capable toastmaster. Those who responded to the toast made the party of the evening thoroughly enjoyable.
Dancing concluded the festivities.
Hardly any resident of Greenville is better known than Mr. Henderson, as he has been a resident there for about fifty-nine years, coming with his parents from Scotland when he was a lad of about 16. He was born at Peakirk, near Edinburgh. He retired from active business about ten years ago, but before that had been employed at the Chelmsford paper mill, where he was a machinist. He is especially well known in this city for his musical ability, and has sung in practically every church in town, and in the gatherings with his Scotch friends his fine tenor voice has always been at their service and has been heard with enjoyment on many occasions. Mr. Henderson is a widower, his wife having passed away about twenty-one years ago. He lives with his son, James C.
Henderson, and has another son, C.
Henderson, who is a singer in Europe, being located at present in Milan, Italy.

him with birthday greetings couched in the truest and warmest Scotch. It was a surprise planned by a party of some extent of the local sons of Scotland, who have held many social gatherings at each others' houses in times past, but this was the first time they had ever come to the home of "Uncle Jim," as he is always known among his friends, to celebrate his 75th birthday next Tuesday, the 26th. Burns but on account of the big celebration by the Scotch residents here that night Mr. Henderson's friends carried out their surprise a few days ahead of time.
